I have three left to find. I also am trying to get all names and where they started. I'm contacting the original chapters for help. Next Friday we should have a complete report of the current whereabouts. (Let me know right away if any above are incorrect).

Thank you to all that sent cards and said prayers for me. I have been given the ok to do the things I have been involved in just watching not to overdo it. That is easier said than done with apple season just starting. Again thanks so much, each of you are truly a Sister or Brother in Star Love.

Hugs,
Theda Andres, PGM

WGM Christy (Idaho) is now in the Rehab Unit in the South Tower at St. Alphonsus Hosp. She is scheduled for six separate sessions of varying rehab per day. The goal is for her to be out of the hospital in 7 to 10 days and to continue rehab on an out-patient basis. WGM Christy and Sister Jo asked that I thank everyone for all the prayers and the wonderful cards that have been sent to WGM Christy and her family. They continue to help them all get through this struggle.
